Winter Courses

Pottery for Everyday

Jan. 10 – Mar. 6, 2012

6 – 9 pm

9 weeks – Tuesdays

Instructor: Amanda Wolf

Tuition: $180

Materials Fee: $108

Enjoy the relaxed MCG ceramic studio, whether you're a beginner or an experienced potter. Use the potter's wheel or a variety of handbuilding techniques to create functional pottery for everyday use. Learn to finish your forms with various decorating techniques, including carving, slips and stamps. Works will be high-fired in our gas kiln so they'll be microwave and dishwasher safe.

The Art of Video

Jan. 25 – Mar. 28, 2012

6 – 9 pm

10 weeks – Wednesdays

Instructor: Jill Wiggins

Tuition: $200

Materials Fee: $50

Video is an extension of still photography. Instead of capturing a single moment you capture many. In this video class we will explore art through the video making process. Projects can be documentary, narrative, experimental or music driven. It's up to you. The key points of the class include planning a video project, shooting attractive footage by controlling your light and composition, capturing good audio, editing your video in Premiere Pro professional editing software, and exporting your project to DVD. You will also learn how to upload your videos to YouTube! All equipment is supplied. No experience needed.

Registration Info

MATERIALS FEES

Materials fees cover the basic supplies that are provided and necessary for completion of each course as determined by the course instructor. Students interested in working with more specialized materials or working in greater volume than is allotted will be responsible for the purchase of these additional materials.

CLASS INFORMATION

Students who register by mail may assume acceptance unless otherwise notified. No confirmation will be sent. MCG will make every effort to maintain the schedule of courses as announced. However, MCG reserves the right to cancel any course and to substitute faculty when necessary.

CLASS REGISTRATION

Spaces are limited! Please register in advance, by mail or in person, to reserve your space. Payment must accompany registration. Applications are processed in the order received and no spaces will be held without full payment. Space permitting, students may enter a class after the start date however class fees will not be prorated.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

Class cancellations are decided three business days before the start date. If a class is cancelled due to insufficient enrollment, the entire class fee and materials fee will be refunded by check. Students may opt-out before the second class begins by calling MCG. In this case, a refund minus a $25 cancellation fee will be given. After the start of the second class, no refunds will be made regardless of the number of class sessions you attend.

EDUCATOR SCHOLARSHIPS & ACT 48 CREDITS

Scholarships for Pittsburgh Public Schools (PPS) teachers and PAEA members are 25% and 10%, respectively, off tuition only and do not cover materials fees. PPS educators are eligible to earn Act 48 hours through the district by completing appropriate documentation at the end of the course. Other PA certified educators may receive Act 48 hours by submitting appropriate documentation and a $40 fee made payable to the Allegheny Intermediate Unit at the end of the course.
